

Conductor Biographies

Dr. Mark Nelson is in his thirty-sixth year of teaching and performing professionally. Keenly interested in music education, he served four terms as Vice-President for Professional Development and just completed a term as the Vice-President for Collegiate/Research for the Arizona Music Educators Association. He is also the recipient of the George C. Wilson Leadership Award and the Excellence in Music Administration Award from AMEA. He frequently serves as a band adjudicator and has also conducted regional honor bands in several states. He is also an accomplished tubist having performed recitals and given master classes in several countries including premiering over thirty new compositions. His degrees include the B.A. from Point Loma Nazarene University, the M.M. and D.M.A. from Arizona State University, the M.Ed. in Education Administration from the University of Vermont, and the Licentiate Performer's Diploma from Trinity College of Music, London. Previous appointments include Professor of Music at Millikin University and Associate Professor of Music at the University of Vermont as well as several years as a public school instrumental teacher. He is currently the Performing Arts Department Head and Director of Bands at Pima Community College in Tucson, Arizona, posts he has held since 2000. In addition to directing the wind ensemble, he also teaches courses in music fundamentals, electronic music, exploring music and applied tuba and euphonium studio instruction. During the summer of 2016 through the first part of September, he also served as Acting Dean of the Arts and Humanities Division.

Conductor Biographies

Dr. Mark Nelson is in his thirty-sixth year of teaching and performing professionally. Keenly interested in music education, he served four terms as Vice-President for Professional Development and just completed a term as the Vice-President for Collegiate/Research for the Arizona Music Educators Association. He is also the recipient of the George C. Wilson Leadership Award and the Excellence in Music Administration Award from AMEA. He frequently serves as a band adjudicator and has also conducted regional honor bands in several states. He is also an accomplished tubist having performed recitals and given master classes in several countries including premiering over thirty new compositions. His degrees include the B.A. from Point Loma Nazarene University, the M.M. and D.M.A. from Arizona State University, the M.Ed. in Education Administration from the University of Vermont, and the Licentiate Performer's Diploma from Trinity College of Music, London. Previous appointments include Professor of Music at Millikin University and Associate Professor of Music at the University of Vermont as well as several years as a public school instrumental teacher. He is currently the Performing Arts Department Head and Director of Bands at Pima Community College in Tucson, Arizona, posts he has held since 2000. In addition to directing the wind ensemble, he also teaches courses in music fundamentals, electronic music, exploring music and applied tuba and euphonium studio instruction. During the summer of 2016 through the first part of September, he also served as Acting Dean of the Arts and Humanities Division.

Dean Moore is a graduate of Youngstown State University in Northeastern Ohio. He is finishing his 15th year teaching in public school. Mr. Moore has taught orchestra, choir, guitar, and general music, but has a passion for band. He is preparing for his fourth year with the Tucson High band and hopes to lead them for many more years. His wife is also a music teacher in the Catalina Foothills school district, and they have a daughter named Cadence. Mr. Moore extends his thanks to Dr. Nelson and Pima Community College for the invitation to perform with them tonight.

Dean Moore is a graduate of Youngstown State University in Northeastern Ohio. He is finishing his 15th year teaching in public school. Mr. Moore has taught orchestra, choir, guitar, and general music, but has a passion for band. He is preparing for his fourth year with the Tucson High band and hopes to lead them for many more years. His wife is also a music teacher in the Catalina Foothills school district, and they have a daughter named Cadence. Mr. Moore extends his thanks to Dr. Nelson and Pima Community College for the invitation to perform with them tonight.

Lucy Huestis is an alum of Tucson High. She went on to study music at the University of Oregon and The University of Arizona. She has taught music at Tucson High since 1984, variously teaching orchestra, piano, band, guitar, and mariachi. She considers it an honor to be able to follow in the footsteps of her former director, Bucky Steele. As a woodwind player, Ms. Huestis has performed with Southern Arizona Symphony, Arizona Symphonic Winds, Pima Theatre musicals, to mention a few.

Lucy Huestis is an alum of Tucson High. She went on to study music at the University of Oregon and The University of Arizona. She has taught music at Tucson High since 1984, variously teaching orchestra, piano, band, guitar, and mariachi. She considers it an honor to be able to follow in the footsteps of her former director, Bucky Steele. As a woodwind player, Ms. Huestis has performed with Southern Arizona Symphony, Arizona Symphonic Winds, Pima Theatre musicals, to mention a few.